"LOVE YOUR FELLOW MAN AS YOURSELF, I AM THE ALMIGHTY." (VAYIKRA 19:18)

The Talmud relates that a non-Jew came to Hillel and asked him to convert him on condition that he be taught the whole Torah standing on one foot. Hillel accepted his condition and told him, "What you dislike, do not do to your friend. This is the entire Torah." Since Hillel was referring to the commandment of loving your fellow man why didn't he just quote the verse?

Rabbi Yeruchem Levovitz explained that this teaches us an important lesson about loving your neighbor. From the words "love your fellow man" one might think as long as I feel love towards others I am fulfilling the commandment. In truth feeling love is not sufficient.

The love I feel must motivate me to positive actions for others and refraining from actions or words that can cause pain. The Torah definitely requires us to feel love for others but our behavior towards them must manifest this love. Therefore, Hillel explained to the man the depth of what the commandment meant, to have a profoundly positive feeling for others and behave in an elevated manner in our daily encounters with them.

Be on the lookout for acts of kindness. When a person looks for them he will find them everywhere.

For this week go out of your way to share with someone how much you care about him.

Have a lovely Shabbos!
