PARSHAS RE'EH

Rabbi Mordecai Kalatsky
August 26, 2022 | 30 Av, 5782

"THE POLICE SPEAK TO THE NATION: WHO IS THE MAN WHO BUILT A NEW HOUSE AND HAS NOT YET STARTED TO LIVE IN IT, HE SHOULD GO AND RETURN TO HIS HOUSE, LEST HE DIE IN THE WAR AND ANOTHER MAN WILL LIVE IN IT" (Devarim 20:5)

Rashi adds: This causes a person much emotional pain. Rabbi Chasman commented on this that the fact in case he dies in battle and he himself will not live in the house he built is not strong enough to free him from serving in the army. What is? The fact that someone else will live in his house. Even though rationally there is no difference to him in any practical way whether someone else lives there, nevertheless emotionally this can cause great pain.

Why should it bother someone more because another person will benefit from labors when he is unable to benefit himself? Although that is true and comes from a faulty character trait it is still true and the nature of people.

The elevated attitude is that even if I don't benefit from my work, I am glad someone else is gaining from it. This is the way of a "giver" and what he will say and think. The negative attitude causes emotional pain whereas the positive attitude gives emotional pleasure. Let us work on mastering the positive attitude.

For this week whether it is a spouse, child or community member, be happy that you are benefiting someone from the hard work and labor you put in instead of feeling taken advantage of.

Have a fulfilling Shabbos!

Rabbi Kalatsky

HALACHIC INSIGHT

Any solid food that has been completely cooked (in a liquid not baked) may be immersed in a hot klei rishon off the fire since there is no prohibition against re cooking solid foods that were previously cooked.

For example, a piece of cold, cooked chicken may be placed in a pot of hot soup after the pot has been removed from the blech or fire. Similarly, a liquid that was boiled and has not cooled completely i.e. it is still suitable as a warm drink may be reheated in a klei rishon.
