

PARSHAS NOACH

Rav Mordechai Kalatsky October 20, 23| 6th Cheshvan, 5784

I have set My bow in the clouds, and it shall serve as a sign of the covenant between Me and the earth.

אָת־קַשְׁתִּׁי נָתַתִּי בֶּעָנָן וְהָיֶתָהֹ לְאִוֹת בְּרִית בֵּינִי וּבַיִן הָאֶרְץ:

The rainbow symbolizes peace and unity. A rainbow is made up of various colors and shades of colors and although they are very different from each other, they come together to make one entire whole. Similarly, people are very different from each other. They come from different national backgrounds, and they have different personalities. But if people will look at themselves as one unit there can be peace and harmony despite the differences between them.

For this reason the rainbow is the symbol of the covenant between Hashem and the Earth.

Whenever you see a rainbow, or a picture of a rainbow, let it be a reminder to work towards harmony with other people even if there are major differences between you. While differences in interests and personality might make it difficult for you to become close friends with a specific person, you can still have a harmonious and peaceful relationship with him.

Have a wonderful Shabbos!

Rabbi Kalatsky

HALACHIC INSIGHT

Foods that grow from the earth may not be chopped, mashed, grated or otherwise cut into very small pieces. Even if already chopped, they may not be reduced to smaller pieces. However, one may cut, chop or mash them with the handle of a utensil. One may mash a banana or potato using the handle of a utensil. In a case of necessity like for a baby, one may cut or chop but not mash them with an ordinary utensil for immediate use.

When cutting onions for a salad or other vegetables into small pieces one should do so immediately prior to the meal in which they will be eaten and cut them into pieces a little larger than usual. Cereals should not be crushed into small pieces unless it is known that the ingredients had initially been reduced to a powder form.
