

PARSHAS SHEMEINI

Rav Mordechai Kalatsky
April 5, 2024 | 26th Adar Bais, 5784

ויקחו בני אהרן נדב ואביהו איש מחמתו וישמו עליה קטרת ויקריבו לפני י-הוה אש זרה אשר לא צוה אתם:
"AND THE SONS OF AHARON, NADAV AND AVIHU, TOOK EACH OF THEM HIS CENSER, AND PUT INSIDE INCENSE, AND OFFERED BEFORE HASHEM A STRANGE FIRE, WHICH HE HAD NOT COMMANDED THEM." (Vayikra 10:1)

In Toras Kohanim it is stated that Nadav and Avihu erred by not consulting Moshe for advice on whether it was proper for them to bring incense. They also erred by not asking each other for advice.

We see two important ideas from this source. One, before doing something that is questionable, make certain to consult someone who is more experienced and wiser. You might feel that what you are about to do is the right thing, but there are always aspects that might have been overlooked or you are unaware of.

The second thing we see is if they would have consulted each other they would not have erred. At first glance this seems puzzling since they both did the same act. We see the principle that at times two people can be doing something, but if they would have discussed the matter they might have reached the conclusion that they should refrain from their behavior. Neither one came to this conclusion on his own. Together they would have.

A person will find a greater level of success in life by developing the habit of discussing with peers to see if there are reasons why he should not do some of the things that he feels like doing.

Have a purposeful Shabbos!

Rabbi Kalatsky

HALACHA

If a Hatzalah Member receives an emergency call after reciting kiddush, and must hurry to the site of the emergency before eating the meal, the halacha is as follows; if he returns within a half hour he does not need to repeat kiddush, but if he returns after that amount of time he must recite kiddush. however, if he drank a revius of wine before leaving his house, he does not need to repeat kiddush.

There are three opinions of what is called eating immediately when you are in the same house where you made kiddush.

Some hold any interruption that is needed for the meal like removing your jacket, shoes etc. is not an interruption. Others hold, you have up to thirty minutes and some even hold, you have until an hour and a quarter to eat for it to not be considered an interruption.
